EANES ISD TRUSTEE TO LEAVE POSITION

AUSTIN, Texas—Ms. Gail King has submitted a letter of resignation from her position on the Eanes Independent School District (EISD) Board of Trustees because her family will be relocating out of state. Ms. King has served on the EISD Board of Trustees since May of 2003 and has been the Board's vice president since May of 2007. Her current term is set to expire in May of 2012.

In her letter, Ms. King stated "It has been a pleasure serving the Eanes community and being part of a team dedicated to educational excellence and continual improvement, while staying student-centered and working to balance various needs and demands to achieve the community's common goals."

According to Board policy (BBC Legal), the Board may fill a vacancy by appointment until the next regular Board election or may order a special election to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. A vacancy must be filled within 180 days after it occurs. After submitting a resignation, a Board member may continue to fulfill his/her duties until the vacancy is filled by a successor.
